

Exam

Elementary school holds a treasure trove of memories that sparkle in my heart. I still remember my first day at school, I was 6 years old. I was very excited but very nervous at the same time whereas my mother was crying tears of pride. I remember the joy of making friends, sharing lunches, and learning together. My classmates were funny, joyful and respectful. I won't forget the colorful classrooms, filled with artwork and the teacher's wisdom and comprehension. They were patient and calm when we were making loud noises and fighting in the classroom.

Elementary school memories are like a magical storybook that made those years truly special.
