

الأستاذة بطروش لغة انجليزية

الاختبار التجريبي لمادة اللغة الإنجليزية

In Algeria's journey to independence, Ahmed Ben Bella emerges as a towering figure. He was born on December 25th, 1916 in Maghnia, Tlemcen. He played a pivotal role in the struggle for Algerian independence from French colonial rule.

Ben Bella began his activism early in life, joining the Algerian nationalist movement in the 1930s. He became a key figure in the Front de Libération Nationale (FLN), which sought to liberate Algeria from French rule through armed resistance.

This great man's leadership skills and charisma quickly propelled him to the forefront of the independence movement. He played a crucial role in organizing guerrilla attacks against French colonial forces and became a symbol of resistance and defiance.

Ahmed Ben Bella became the country's first president after liberation in 1962. During his presidency, he implemented reforms to improve the lives of Algerians, such as redistributing land and nationalizing industries. He also advocated for solidarity among African nations and promoted Arab unity. Ahmed died in 2012. Throughout his life, he remained dedicated to social justice and human rights.

PART ONE:

Reading comprehension:

1- Answer by "true", "false" or "not mentioned":

- a- Ben Bella was the founder of FLN.
- b- He was the first president after the liberation.
- c- Ahmed was a president until 1965.

2- Answer the following question:

- a- When did Ben Bella join the Algerian nationalist movement?
- b- What did he do to improve the lives of Algerians?

3- Match each word with its synonym:

Outstanding	Monument
Passed away	Prominent
Brave	Courageous
Landmark	Died

Mastery of language:

1- Correct the underlined mistakes:

Noureddine Melikechi is born in 1958 in the town of Thénia, on the Wilaya of Boumerdés , Algeria. While he was young, he was interest in science and literature.

2- Put the verbs between brackets to the right form

a- If Emir Abdelkader (to continue) to be studied, future generations (to understand) his significant role in Algerian history.

b- While we (to set) In a French coffee, a French soldier (to capture) A freedom fighter.

3- Classify the words in the table according to the pronunciation of their final “ed”:

travelled – watched – liked – needed

/t/	/d/	/id/

PART TWO:

Written expression:

Your e-pal wants to know about an Algerian famous writer. Send him an e-mail to introduce Moufdi Zakaria. Use the information below.

ID CARD

Name: Moufdi Zakaria

Date and place of birth: June 12th, 1908 in Gherdaia

Occupation: Poet

Works: “The Algerian Illiad” “The National Anthem”

Date and place of Death: August &17th, 1977 in Tunisia.

الأستاذة بطروش لغة انجليزية

الاختبار التجريبي لمادة اللغة الإنجليزية

In Algeria's journey to independence, Ahmed Ben Bella emerges as a towering figure. He was born on December 25th, 1916 in Maghnia, Tlemcen. He played a pivotal role in the struggle for Algerian independence from French colonial rule.

Ben Bella began his activism early in life, joining the Algerian nationalist movement in the 1930s. He became a key figure in the Front de Libération Nationale (FLN), which sought to liberate Algeria from French rule through armed resistance.

This great man's leadership skills and charisma quickly propelled him to the forefront of the independence movement. He played a crucial role in organizing guerrilla attacks against French colonial forces and became a symbol of resistance and defiance.

Ahmed Ben Bella became the country's first president after liberation in 1962. During his presidency, he implemented reforms to improve the lives of Algerians, such as redistributing land and nationalizing industries. He also advocated for solidarity among African nations and promoted Arab unity. Ahmed died in 2012. Throughout his life, he remained dedicated to social justice and human rights.

PART ONE:

Reading comprehension:

1- Answer by "true", "false" or "not mentioned":

- a- Ben Bella was the founder of FLN. False
- b- He was the first president after the liberation. True
- c- Ahmed was a president until 1965. Not mentioned

2- Answer the following questions:

a- When did Ben Bella join the Algerian nationalist movement?

Ben Bella joined the Algerian nationalist movement in the 1930s.

b- What did he do to improve the lives of Algerians?

He improved the lives of Algerians by redistributing land and nationalizing industries.

3- Match each word with its synonym:

الأستاذة بطروش لغة انجليزية

Outstanding	→	Monument
Passed away	→	Prominent
Brave	→	Courageous
Landmark	→	Died

Mastery of language:

1- Correct the underlined mistakes:

Noureddine Melikechi was born in 1958 in the town of Thénia, in the Wilaya of Boumerdés, Algeria. When he was young, he was interested in science and literature.

2- Put the verbs between brackets to the right form

a- If Emir Abdelkader continues to be studied, future generations will understand his significant role in Algerian history.

b- While we were setting in a French coffee, a French soldier captured a freedom fighter.

3- Classify the words in the table according to the pronunciation of their final “ed”:

travelled – watched – liked – needed

/t/	/d/	/id/
Watched – liked	Travelled	Needed